CALHOUN, GEORGIA

What will your memory be?

#ExploreGordon

Welcome to Gordon County

In Calhoun/Gordon County, located in the Northwest region of Georgia, you can recapture the essence of those calmer days, that slower paced life you remember, and share them with your kids.

The rolling hills of Gordon County are steeped in history. Walk in the footsteps of the Cherokee Nation; see where one of the bloodiest battles in the Civil War was fought; close your eyes and listen to native Roland Hayes, the late world-renowned African-American tenor.

Gordon County offers camping - from primitive to comfortable. There's also hiking, fishing, canoeing and a chance to really leave the bright city lights behind and experience the stars instead. Two golf courses cater to the pros and to the amateur duffers.

Artists and antique lovers will find quaint shops and galleries and out-of-the-way nooks and niches, just begging to be explored. If shopping is your style, don't miss Calhoun's downtown business district with chic boutiques, Calhoun Outlet Marketplace with over 50 stores adjacent to I-75... or the many carpet outlets.

For those searching for culinary delights and delicious southern flare, you will find top rated BBQ joints, as well as, a variety of local favorites offering farm-to-fork vegetables.

Gordon County boasts six exits along I-75 and some of the best national brand accommodations without the big city price tags. All within an easy drive to Atlanta, Chattanooga, Tennessee and Birmingham, Alabama.

There's more to life than traffic jams, deadlines, and families going in different directions. In Calhoun/Gordon County, you can enjoy a relaxing family retreat.

Step back in time as you walk in the footsteps of Civil War soldiers and Cherokee Indians. Gordon County is rich in history – experience it firsthand.

Battle of Resaca Reenactment
Third weekend in May
Chitwood Road
Resaca, (706) 625-3200
BattleOfResaca.org

The first major battle of the Atlanta Campaign was fought around the tiny village of Resaca on May 14-15, 1864. Over two days, Union and Confederate forces attacked and counter-attacked, with both armies losing approximately 2,800 men. The reenactment is held on the historic Chitwood Farm, a 650-acre section of the original battlefield. Evident within the property are the original Federal and Confederate entrenchments and the 1864 Western & Atlantic Railroad line.

Admission: $2-$5

Fort Wayne Civil War Historic Site

117 Taylor Ridge Road
Resaca, (706) 602-4435

Fort Wayne features two well-preserved fortified areas used by both Confederate and Union forces during and after the Civil War. Visitors can walk the one mile trail to view the original parade grounds and entrenchments which are the last known constructed by the Georgia Militia. Open daily dawn-dusk. Free admission.

Resaca Battlefield Historic Site

183 Resaca Lafayette Road
Resaca, (706) 602-4435
GordonCountyParks.org

Walk the six miles of trail systems where much of the heaviest fighting occurred during the first major battle of the "Atlanta Campaign". The park includes massive earthen Confederate and Federal infantry and artillery fortifications, interpretive signage, and a covered picnic pavilion. Open Fri.-Sun., dawn to dusk. Free admission.

Resaca Confederate Cemetery

Confederate Cemetery Road
Resaca, (706) 625-3200

The first Confederate Cemetery to be dedicated in the nation and the final resting place of 451 soldiers who died in the Battle of Resaca. During the war, Col. John F. Green and his family were forced to flee their home in Resaca. They returned to dead Confederate soldiers still lying on the battlefield area. Col. Green's daughters, Mary and Pyatt, were upset by the sight and decided to collect the bodies and give them proper graves. Their father gave them 2.5 acres of land to use as a cemetery. Mary Green started the cemetery in July 1866 without any money. The cemetery was dedicated at the end of October, and all debts were paid by the end of December 1866. Open daily dawn to dusk. Free admission.

New Echota Cherokee Capital State Historic Site

1211 Chatsworth Highway
Calhoun, (706) 624-1321
GaStateParks.org/NewEchota

One of the most significant Cherokee Indian sites in the nation, where the infamous "Trail of Tears" officially began and home of the first Indian language newspaper office. Tour 12 original and reconstructed buildings, view interpretive exhibits and a 17-minute film. Open Tue. - Sat., 9 a.m.-5 p.m., Sun. 1 p.m.-5 p.m. April-November Admission: $5.50 - $7

Atlanta Campaign Pavilion

3949 U.S. Highway 41 N
Resaca

Third in a series of five parks built by the Works Progress Administration to identify sites of the Civil War's Atlanta Campaign, the pavilion features a relief map of troop movements and fighting in and around Resaca May 13-15, 1864. It is located on the northern section of the battlefield. The map explains the events at the Battle of Resaca and the Federal flanking movement at Lay's Ferry, which resulted in Johnston's withdrawal south over the Oostanaula River along the Western and Atlantic Railroad to Calhoun and then Cassville.

2400 On The River will be a splendid backdrop to an already memorable event.

Calhoun Supercross

Georgia's oldest Saturday night racetrack and one of the premier motocross tracks in the South. Hosts competitions and practice sessions. Makes for great nightlife action photography.

Carters Lake (near dam)

One of the most scenic lakes in the southeast, featuring 62 miles of shoreline and the highest earth-filled dam east of the Mississippi River. Photos taken on the water during sunset are gorgeous.

Chattahoochee National Forest

(The Pocket/John's Mountain)

The vibrant spring colors of mountain laurel and the brilliant fall color provided by mixed hardwoods make spring and fall perfect times to visit. The John's Mountain Overlook is a breathtaking photo opportunity.

Copper Creek Farm

The acres of sunflowers in the summer and corn in the fall create bountiful photo opportunities. Additionally, there are several photo ready spots for taking a souvenir photo.

Downtown Calhoun

From back alleys to the City Park and Depot, Downtown Calhoun offers numerous picturesque locations. Scarecrows and decorated hay rolls in the fall, beautiful Christmas decor, and twinkling lights in the trees year-round add a special touch.

New Echota Cherokee Capital State Historic Site

The entire site is photo-worthy, but Vann's Tavern, Phoenix Printshop and Missionary Samuel Worcester's House offer the best photos.

NWGA Regional Fair

This annual event is always a favorite with locals and travelers alike. The fair features all of the old-time favorites like a grand kick-off parade, blue ribbon competitions in fine arts, photography, canned items, and fresh baked goods. Beauty pageants, live music, and a children's fashion show are certain to entertain. And no county fair would be complete without the traditional carnival rides and live farm animals. Make time to enjoy and commemorate. Be sure to bring your camera - photo ops abound!

Paradise Drag Strip

Built in 1961 from an abandoned cotton field, Paradise features a 1/8 mile drag strip and hosts races every Sunday. A great picture spot for those sports car enthusiasts.

The ROCK Garden

Cinderella's castle, Notre Dame, and 50 more hand-built miniature stone structures await you. The Himeji Castle was just completed and the Roman Colosseum is the next project. Beautiful flowers and a meandering stream enhance this tranquil, whimsical oasis – and make a beautiful backdrop!

Wedding and Meeting Venues

Plan to be Enlightened and Entertained

The rolling hills of Calhoun-Gordon County are steeped in history and offer countless opportunities for adventure. As you explore our Battle of Resaca sites, you literally are standing where some of the heaviest fighting took place at the beginning of Sherman's Atlanta Campaign. Walk in the footsteps of the Cherokee Indians and see where the tragic "Trail of Tears" officially began.

If you are a nature lover, you will enjoy North-west Georgia. Castles and cathedrals await you at The ROCK Garden, a whimsical place featuring miniature structures and beautiful scenery. The moderate climate allows for year-around activities such as paddling our rivers and lakes and hiking or biking along our scenic trails.

If shopping is more your style, search the sales at Calhoun Outlet Marketplace, find unique souvenirs and gifts in Downtown Calhoun or stroll the seasonal farmers' markets.

For the arts enthusiast, tour the Roland Hayes Museum and galleries at the Harris Arts Center and enjoy acclaimed entertainment at Calhoun's restored GEM Theatre.

Conveniently located between Atlanta and Chattanooga with six exits on I-75, Gordon County offers easy access to plentiful dining choices, entertainment, shopping and lodging.

To be "in the know" and learn where the locals go, contact the Gordon County Chamber of Commerce/ Convention & Visitors Bureau and visit the #ExploreGordon section on ExploreGordonCounty.com for trip inspirations.

We look forward to welcoming you!
