SPRING BIRD HIKE

Saturday, April 6th - 9:00 am

Interested in learning about the birds in your backyard? Join New Echota State Historic Site for a springtime birding hike on Saturday, April 6, at 9 AM. The hike will be approximately 1.5 hours in duration with a low to moderate difficulty. Be sure to wear comfortable walking clothes, bring binoculars if available (not required) and lunch for a post-hike picnic lunch, if desired. Picnic tables are available on site.

Regular admission fee of $6-$8 is required and includes the Ranger guided trail walk and admission to the museum, as well as self-guided tours of twelve historic and reconstructed buildings.

New Echota State Historic Site is a designated National Historic Landmark, has been nominated as a Traditional Cultural Property and is certified site on the Trail of Tears National Historic Trail. The site has information on maps and history concerning the Trail of Tears National Historic Trail and efforts to mark the Trail of Tears throughout North Georgia.
