What they're saying

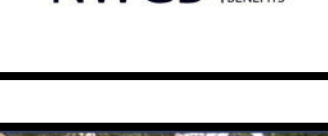

"Garrett poignantly flips the paradigm through artful storytelling... In these pages our belovedness is spoken, love is unleashed, and we uncover God's lavish generosity following His truths about us!"
-Amy Pearson, President, On Point

New Echota Cherokee Capital State Historic Site

GET OUTDOORS AND ENJOY SPRING PROGRAMS THAT HIGHLIGHT THE ECOLOGY AND HISTORY OF NORTHWEST GEORGIA

Archaeology Day: Saturday, May 25 from 10 AM-12 PM

In celebration of Archaeology Month, visitors will have a chance to learn about the Archaeology of New Echota from 10 AM to 12 PM. Kids of all ages will be able to participate in dig box activities and experiment with tools and techniques that Archaeologists use to preserve the past. Guided history tours will also be offered at 10 AM and 1 PM. $6-$8 per person admission.

Flint Knapping Demonstrations: Saturday, Jun 29, 2024 10 AM to 12 PM

Join New Echota for outdoor flint knapping demonstrations! During the demonstrations, visitors will learn about different tools and methods that ancient societies across the world have used to create flint points for arrows, knives, and many other everyday tools. $6-$8 per person admission.

Program admission includes access to the outdoor grounds with 12 historic and reconstructed buildings, nature trails, museum, and 17-minute film. Picnic tables are available on site. New Echota is located at 1201 Chestnut St. SE, Calhoun, GA 30701 and is open all year long. For more information and to view upcoming events, visit GaStateParks.org/NewEchota.

New Echota State Historic Site is a designated National Historic Landmark. This site has been nominated as a Traditional Cultural Property and is certified site on the Trail of Tears National Historic Trail. The site has information on history and maps concerning the Trail of Tears National Historic Trail and efforts to mark the Trail of Tears throughout North Georgia. Georgia State Parks and Historic Sites is a Division on the Georgia Department of Natural Resources, which takes traditional responsibilities for conserving the natural, cultural, and historic resources of Georgia. Visit dnr.ga.gov to learn more about our parks and historic sites.
